Linklaters wins Mergermarket European M&A Award for Benelux region

Linklaters is honoured to have won the Benelux Award - Legal Adviser of the Year at the 2024 Mergermarket European M&A Awards held last night at the Natural History Museum, London. The award is a testament to the firm's exemplary contribution to the M&A industry, recognising its innovative advisory work on some of the most intricate transactions.

Organised by Mergermarket, a leading provider of M&A data and intelligence, the European M&A Awards highlight excellence across the dynamic and competitive mergers and acquisitions landscape. With only one winner per category, the awards set the benchmark for exceptional achievement in the field.

"We are deeply honoured to receive this recognition from Mergermarket, which celebrates the collaborative effort and commitment to excellence that define our Benelux team. In a year of complex transactions, we are proud to have delivered innovative solutions that drive real value for our clients. This award highlights not only the power of our teamwork but also our dedication to leading the way in M&A advisor. It inspires us to continue pushing boundaries in this dynamic field." Arnaud Coibion, Jan Willem de Boer, Catherine Kremer, Filip Lecoutre, An-Sofie Van Hootegem, Mariken van Esch.

This accolade reinforces Linklaters' reputation as an international leader in legal advisory, solidifying its position at the forefront of transformative and strategic deal-making in Europe and beyond.
